

Who is being affected??

- Native American tribes (Standing Rock)
- Protesters
- These people are taking action to protest against the Dakota Pipeline.

What's Up?

- An oil pipeline is being created and it's going to break a treaty between Native Americans and the U.S.
- The pipeline is going through sacred Native American land and the Missouri River.

When?

Now. They're in the process of creating and inputting the pipeline.

Where?

Why you need to CARE about DAPL!

Source: Philly.com

By: Errion Holness

All over the U.S. there are protests arising. The pipeline is traveling from North Dakota through South Dakota and Iowa into Illinois.

Why?

The oil company is transporting crude oil. This needs to be stopped since the oil could spill and destroy farm land and invade the Native American territory. It also can tamper with the clean Missouri water.

Reaction?

- I can't believe that a federal company is breaking the treaty between Native Americans and the U.S.
- They're treating the protestors terribly by siccing them with dogs and macing them.
- They're funding it using pension funds without notifying the pensioner and the taxpayer's tax dollar..
- I can't believe it's worth over

How is PA involved?

- We are one of the major investors into this pipeline.
- They get the money from the Philly Public School Retirement system.
- The teacher's state pension funds are being spent.
- Our overall tax dollars are being used towards this.

Schools

$192 million.

